

Funeral AssignmentsA Job Aid for Clients Regarding Funeral Assignments

How are funeral assignments handled?

ACTION	CLARIFICATION
What is a Funeral Assignment?  Does New York Life Group Benefit Solutions (NYL GBS) accept Funeral Assignments?	A Funeral Assignment is an agreement that is signed by a beneficiary of a life insurance policy. The beneficiary assigns all or a portion of the life insurance benefits at the Funeral Home which allows payment for funeral expenses to be made directly to the funeral home.  Yes, NYL GBS does accept Funeral Assignments.
Can a minor beneficiary sign a Funeral Assignment?	No a minor cannot sign a Funeral Assignment. A beneficiary who is minor (under legal age as determined by each individual state) cannot sign a legally binding contract.
Can a parent (or child's representative) sign the Funeral Assignment on behalf of the minor?	Generally, a parent of the minor cannot assign their interest to the funeral home for funeral expenses. A representative (for example, a guardian or a conservator) may or may not have the authority to assign. A court order is many times required to specifically authorize us to pay expenses on behalf of the minor to the funeral home. If a court order is received and is clear, we'd honor it. Any questions, please consult NYL GBS.
Who sends the Funeral Assignment to NYL GBS?	The Funeral Home should provide a completed assignment and itemized bill to the beneficiary to be filed by the Employer with the life insurance claim.
Payment of the Funeral Assignment	Once the claim is approved, payment for funeral expenses will be sent directly to the Funeral Home.
	Any balance in excess of the expenses will be sent to the beneficiary
